IBPS: RRBs Information and Prerequisites

A Common Written Examination (CWE) will be organised by the Institute of Banking Personnel Selection (IBPS) as a pre requisite (pre-qualification) for recruitment of personnel for Group- "A" -Officers (Scale-I, II & III) and Group- "B" -Office Assistants (Multipurpose) posts in the Regional Rural Banks.

Also refer the list of regional rural banks for IBPS.

Steps Which Need to Followed in the Recruitment in RRBs

students who wants to join the above Regional Rural Bank either as an Officer (Scale-I, II & III) or as an Office Assistant (Multipurpose) will need to be required to qualify through the CWE.

Potential candidates who wants to appear for the CWE will have to apply to IBPS.

CWE of IBPS will qualify candidates to become eligible for recruitment. Recruitment will be by each participating RRB who will issue their on and a separate recruitment notification specifying no of vacancies and quoting the eligibility criteria as desired by respective RRBs in terms of following-

- Age
- Quoting the eligibility criteria required by respective RRBs like proficiency in Official Language of the State or UT for which vacancy a candidate wishes to apply.
- experience (if any)
- Minimum required level of IBPS score in each section test plus Total Weighted Standard Score.

Qualifications

The Eligibility criteria is the general criteria for applying to various different Regional Rural Banks. Just merely applying for and qualifying in CWE does not imply that a candidate will be eligible for employment in all or any particular Regional Rural Bank as each Bank will quote its own eligibility or qualifying criteria, followed by the procedure of Interviews etc.
