

Railway Minister Suresh Prabhu Inaugurates Integrated Security System in Mumbai (Download PDF)

(July 4, 2015)

Suresh Prabhu who is Union Railway Minister inaugurated the Integrated Security System (ISS) at 6 railway stations in Mumbai, Maharashtra. The Integrated Security System (ISS) was inaugurated Chhatrapati Shivaji Terminus (CST), Dadar, Kurla and Lokmanya Tilak Terminus (LTT), Kalyan and Thane.

1. Integrated Security System (ISS) has a total of 118 CCTV cameras. They will beam the live images of railway stations under its coverage on six monitors.
2. It is advanced a security system that aims at launching to improve security on Railway premises and also ensure safety of the people and avert terror attacks in extreme case.
3. In the first phase of the project which was completed in June 2015 it covered four stations CST, Dadar, Kurla and LTT.
4. In December 2016, the second phase is expected to be completed. Apart from this Suresh Prabhu also inaugurated a modified foot over bridge (FOB) to facilitate passenger movement at Diva.
5. Integrated Security Systems (ISS) is a full service systems integrator which solutions to meet the security requirements of our customers specializing in access Control, Life Safety, Fire Alarm, CCTV and Mass Notification Systems.

- Published/Last Modified on: July 4, 2015

None

↩ PREVIOUS	NEXT ↩
Literacy rate 71% in rural areas, 86% in urban areas NSSO survey	Greece becomes first developed nation to default IMF debt

-Examrace Team

▶ Monthly-updated, fully-solved, large current affairs-2018 question bank(more than 2000 problems): Quickly cover most-important current-affairs questions with pointwise explanations especially designed for IAS, CBSE-NET, Bank-PO and other competitive exams.