

Karnataka PG Solved Paper 2004 (Part 12 of 20)

1. Axillary vein thrombosis is NOT a complication of:

- a. Thoracic outlet syndrome
- b. Simple mastectomy
- c. Excessive upper limb exercise
- d. Straphangers

Answer: b

2. The four points of probe placement in Focused Abdominal Sonogram for Trauma (FAST) in blunt thoracoabdominal trauma are:

- a. Epigastrium, R hypochondrium, Lower chest, hypogastrum
- b. Epigastrium, R & Hypochondria R Iliac fossa
- c. Epigastrium, r 7 Lumbar regions, hypogastrum
- d. Hypogastrum, r& Lumbar region, R lower chest

Answer: a

3. In the acronym "SWELLING" used for the history and examination of a limb or swelling, the letter 'N' stands for:

- a. Nodes
- b. Noise (Thrill/bruit)
- c. Numbness
- d. Neurological effects

Answer: b

4. A position Froment's sign is associated with palsy of which nerve?

- a. Median
- b. Axillary
- c. Radial

d. Ulnar

Answer: d

5. Acute bacterial sialadenitis is managed by:

- a. Immediate sialography
- b. Fluid intake restriction
- c. Culture of the FNAC from the involved gland
- d. Use of broad spectrum antibiotics

Answer: d

6. A branchial cyst develops from the vestigial remnants of the:

- a. 2nd branchial cleft
- b. 3rd branchial cleft
- c. 1st branchial cleft
- d. 4th branchial cleft

Answer: a

7. About follicular carcinoma of the thyroid gland:

- a. FNAC is diagnostic
- b. Lymph node metastases are common
- c. Distant metastases are more common
- d. Local recurrence rates are low

Answer: c

8. Poland's syndrome of the congenital absence of the sternal head of the pectoralis major muscle is associated with:

- a. Mastalgia
- b. Amazia
- c. Polymazia
- d. Gynecomazia

Answer: b

9. Chest drain insertion is safest when performed:

- a. In the apex of the chest for pneumothorax
- b. In the base of the chest for haemothorax
- c. In the 'triangle of safety' on the anterolateral chest wall
- d. With the smallest bore chest tube available

Answer: c

10. Disparity of the bowel ends during end to end anastomosis is corrected by:

- a. Cheatle's manoeuvre
- b. Connell suture
- c. Lembert suture
- d. Czerny technique

Answer: a