

Competitive Exams: Advanced Grammar (Practice-Test 1 of 2)

1. The con artist hoodwinked the old lady when he sold her fraudulent insurance.

- a. Capitalization
- b. Punctuation
- c. Spelling
- d. Grammar

Answer: c

2. The movie star was accused of a misdemeanor, when she stole 15 dollars worth of merchandise from the store.

- a. Capitalization
- b. Punctuation
- c. Spelling
- d. Grammar

Answer: b

3. The congregation sang a contemporary hymn.

- a. Capitalization
- b. Punctuation
- c. Spelling
- d. Grammar

Answer: c

4. The wound were necrotic when examined.

- a. Capitalization
- b. Punctuation
- c. Spelling

d. Grammar

Answer: d

5. The defendint exhibited a peevish appearance.

- a. Capitalization
- b. Punctuation
- c. Spelling
- d. Grammar

Answer: c

6. The band director was scheduled to play the piccolo on tuesday.

- a. Capitalization
- b. Punctuation
- c. Spelling
- d. Grammar

Answer: a

7. The renter was remiss; about the rent.

- a. Capitalization
- b. Punctuation
- c. Spelling
- d. Grammar

Answer: b

8. The old man was know for sapient knowledge.

- a. Capitalization
- b. Punctuation
- c. Spelling
- d. Grammar

Answer: d

9. The inventor create several specious ideas to solve the problem.

- a. Capitalization
- b. Punctuation
- c. Spelling
- d. Grammar

Answer: d

10. The teacher identified the troublemakers, in her classroom.

- a. Capitalization
- b. Punctuation
- c. Spelling
- d. Grammar

Answer: b