

Examrace

▶ Examrace 463K

Accountancy Fundamentals Complete Lessons for Competitive Exams: Download or View the PDFs

Competitive Exams: Accounting Introduction

This tutorial focuses on the fundamental topics of accounting. Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Accounting Concepts

This tutorial focuses on the fundamental topics and concepts of accounting. Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Accounting Conventions and Standards

This tutorial helps to understand the conventions and standards of accounting. Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Accounting for Business Transactions

This tutorial focuses on the fundamental topics of business transactions for accounting. Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Journal

This tutorial helps to clarify the concept of journal and how to make a journal entry. Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Ledger

What is ledger? What is the importance of ledger and how is a ledger maintained? Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: CashBook

What is meant by cashbook, its importance and role in maintaining financial assets. Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Special Purpose Books

What are special purpose books and how are they different from cashbooks? Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Bank Reconciliation Statement

What is bank reconciliation statement and its role? Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Trial Balance

This tutorial aims to understand the concept of trial balance. Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Errors and Their Rectification

How are errors determined and rectified in accountancy? Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Computer and Computerised Accounting System

This tutorial explains the role of computers in keeping financial records and also computerised accounting system. Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Financial Statements Introduction

What is meant by financial statements and how they are maintained? Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Financial Statement Basics

This tutorial aims to explain the basics of financial statements. Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Financial Statement Advanced

This tutorial aims to explain the advanced concepts in financial statements. Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Not for Profit Organisation

What are not for profit organizations and how are their records maintained? Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Financial Statements

What is meant by financial statements and how do they function? Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Partnership General

What is the general concept of partnership in any business? Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Admission of a Partner

This tutorial explains the method of how the partners are admitted to any business or organization. Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Retirement and Death of Partner

What next, in case of retirement or death of the partnet in a business? Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Dissolution of Partnership Firm

In case of conflict or by mutual agreement, how a partnership firm is dissolved? Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Company an Introduction

What is a company? What are the role and functions that aa company performs? Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Issue of Shares

What is meant by issue of shares? Who issues them and how is the proceeding done? Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Forfeitrue of Shares

What does forfeiture of shares imply? Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Reissue of Debentures

How are debentures reissued? What is the process for the same? Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Issue of Debentures

How are debentures issued? What is the process for the same? Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Financial Statements Analysis-An Introduction

Basics to help understand the process of analysis of financial statements. Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Accounting Ratios Basics

What are the basics of accounting ratios and why are they important? Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Accounting Ratios Advanced

This tutorial explains the advanced concepts of accounting ratios. Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Cash Flow Statement

What is meant by cash flow statements and how are they analyzed? Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Basics of Cost Accounting

What is cost accounting and how is it different from accounting? Introduction on the fundamental concepts of costing. Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Basic Cost Concepts

Before understanding cost accounting, it is important to be familiar with the basic concepts of costing. Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Cost Sheet

What is cost sheet? How is it maintained and importance of maintaining a cost sheet? Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Materials and Stores

What are materials and stores and their importance in studying accountancy. Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Competitive Exams: Accounting Sample Question Paper

Practicing accountancy simple questions to help revise the concepts, here are some of the common descriptive questions that a student must know. Keeping a track of financial information, assets, balance sheet, cost and revenue is important. This material on accountancy for Competitive Exams aims to make this simple for students.

View or download here

Discussions & Questions

I want to have all study material for commerce especially objective type questions. (- sa...@ on 28-Dec-2014)

1 Answer

The objective type questions for Commerce are available at the following path-
<https://www.examrace.com/Sample-Objective-Questions/Commerce-Questions>

- Examrace on 28-Dec-2014