

Examrace

Vocabulary Word Meanings: From Convivial, Corporeal to Concur

Doorsteptutor material for UGC is prepared by world's top subject experts: Get detailed illustrated notes covering entire syllabus: point-by-point for high retention.

Convivial

adj- fond of parties; sociable

Also used as: Conviviality- noun; convivially-adv

It can stressful when one member of a couple is convivial and the other is a loner.

Corporeal

adj- having to do with the body or the body or the physical world

Also used as: Corporeality- noun; corporeally (adv)

Corporation a body of people corpse a dead body and corpulent having a large, overweight body

If there are ghosts how do they intersect with the corporeal world?

Culpable

Adj- guilty; blameworthy

Culpability hard, making a gulp sound.

Also used as: Culpability- noun, culpably –adv

Culprit

He was found to be culpable and was fined.

Cupidity

noun- greed especially for money

The burglar returned to the house for more, and his cupidity is what got him caught.

Cursory

adj- quickly and incompletely done; superficial

Pressed for time the captain conducted a cursory inspection.

Cajole

verb- to feel with flattery or false promises; coax; deceive

Also used as: Cajolery, carjolement- nouns

The scam artist cajoled them out of their money

Candor

noun- honesty; frankness

Also used as: Candid- adj; candidly-adv

Political candor is refreshing.

Capacious

adj-large; roomy; spacious

Also used as: Capaciousness- noun; capaciously-adv

He needed a capacious apartment for his stuffed moose collection.

Censure

verb- to criticize

Also used as: Censorious-adj; censoriously- adv

Note: don't confuse with censor which means to delete objectionable material.

The newspaper editorial censured the governor for her budget proposals.

Clemency

noun- mercy

Also used as: Clement- adj

The remorseful defendant begged the judge for clemency.

Concur

verb- agree

Also used as: Concurrence- noun

Scientists do not concur on what caused the dinosaurs to die out.