Grown out of Central Institute of English and Foreign Languages (CIEFL), the English and Foreign Languages University, popularly known as EFL, is a first of its kind. It is a Central University, unlike its parent institute, which is a Deemed University. It was established on 3rd August by an act of Parliament which considered the growing importance of foreign languages in India. It is devoted to critical intercultural understanding of civilizations and to improve the quality of teaching of English and Foreign Languages.

The English and Foreign Languages University has three campuses at present. They are at Hyderabad, Lucknow and Shillong.

With five different schools, the Hyderabad campus of English and Foreign Languages University is the biggest. These five schools offer a large number of courses.

1. School of critical Humanities
2. School of Distance Education
3. School of English language Education
4. School of Foreign Languages
5. School of Language Sciences
