23

Educated Guess!!

- Absolute word response like "always" or "never" are less likely to be correct than conditional word response like "usually" or "probably."
- "Funny" responses are usually wrong.
- "All of the above" is often a correct response.
- "None of the above" is usually incorrect response, but is less reliable than "all of the above" rule.
- Look for verbal associations. Correct response repeats key words that are in the stem.
